“ I absolutely love Payhip, it's such a user-friendly platform that literally anyone can use. Having launched my first ever eBook with Payhip, everything has gone by a breeze, I couldn't be happier with how easy it is.

Cherie Tu
Vegan lifestyle advocate

“ We needed a company that handled VAT of the eBooks we sell. After a little research, we found Payhip to be the best fit. We're now using Payhip. We love the way they handle VAT and are easy to work with!

Frequently asked questions

Useful things to know from our helpful customer support team

When do I get paid?

We will deposit your sales to you immediately after a transaction has been completed. All payments are sent to your connected PayPal or Stripe account.

Can I cancel my account at anytime

Absolutely, you'll be able to cancel your account whenever you'd like if you decide we're not for you.

Where can I sell projects online?

You can sell projects online directly to your clients using Payhip. Payhip provides complete eCommerce tools for secure transactions and marketing. You'll also be able to display your digital products on Payhip's marketplace to gain extra visibility no extra cost.

Is there a storage limit?

No, we have no storage or bandwidth limits. We only have a 5GB per file limit. If you really need more than 5GB per file, then get in touch.

How can I contact you

Just shoot us an email at contact@payhip.com or reach out to us on Twitter. We'd love to chat!

Can I make money selling projects?

Yes, you can make money selling your side projects.

Many people pursue side projects out of passion, only to discover that their work addresses needs or solves problems for others, making it something that potential customers are willing to pay for. With the right approach, your passion project can become a profitable venture.

What file formats do you support?

We support ALL file formats. You can upload any file type with any extension to Payhip.

How do you sell your projects?

To sell your projects, begin by creating a professional website to showcase them, complete with detailed descriptions, images, and other relevant information. You can use Payhip to build your site for free, allowing you to upload your projects as digital products and accept transactions directly through your Payhip store.

What types of side projects are typically sold?

You can sell a wide variety of projects, including web applications that address specific problems, established e-commerce stores, and mobile apps ready for download or development. Additionally, there are digital products like eBooks, online courses, and templates, along with SaaS offerings that provide subscription-based services. These projects can range from fully operational businesses to concepts that require further development.

Do you offer charity discounts

For sure, we love to support great causes of all kinds so please get in touch with us.

Why do all the pricing plans have the same features?

At Payhip, our goal is to make pricing as simple and transparent as possible. So, no feature-gating here! You'll get access to all of our amazing features to help you grow your business, even on our free plan.
